SCHLEGEL BOWL 2010

Creighton University Sophomore Programming's Third-annual Schlegel Bowl 2010: Muggle Quidditch. The game was based off the sport of quidditch in the Harry Potter books, but modified to allow us muggles to participate. Instead of broomsticks, pool noodles were used.

Prizes were awarded to the winning team, the team with the most spirit, and the spectator with the most spirit.

GAMMA PHI BETA

Gamma Phi Beta works to promote leadership and resiliency in women through a partnership with CampFire USA. Gamma Phi Beta at Central University has over 100 members and we pride ourselves in our philanthropic projects, social events, academics and sisterhood bonding.

Our colors are brown and maroon; our symbol is the crescent moon; our flower is the pink carnation; and our mascot is the alligator. Our service to the community is relentless as we actively participate in various philanthropic events. Each fall we host a Bowling tournament to benefit Catholic charities, and in the Spring our "Wing Fling" baseball tailgate raises money for local youth. We are working on donating more of our time and money through CampFire USA in Omaha with weekly tutoring at Jackson Elementary and financially supporting a "Campfire Spark".

Our social schedule is full as well. We hold two date parties a semester, semi-formal in the fall, and formal in the spring. Plus, we hold mixers with other fraternities and sororities. Date parties and mixers are full of fun with themes like, "G-Phi Bling", "The Breakfast Club" and the annual Halloween party, "Goo Phoo Boo" (to name a few).

"Gamma Phi Beta has truly made a difference in my college career so far. I have met some of my best friends in this sorority and my experiences with them have shaped me to be the woman I am today. I am looking forward to Gamma Phi's spring philanthropy, Wing Fling tailgating before one of the CU baseball games this summer!" Junior Kelly McManus

THETA PHI ALPHA

Theta Phi Alpha national supports Glenmary Lay Missioners and The House That Theta Phi Alpha Built. Glenmary's work is in depressed rural areas of the United States, primarily in the Appalachians Mountains, where they distribute food, clothing, and books to needy persons, and assist in providing medical care, job training, and tutoring. The House That Theta Phi Alpha Built is Theta Phi Alpha's newest philanthropic cause, established in 1993. The common goal through The House is to improve the plight of the homeless in any way. The chapter can seek to provide assistance to organizations that help the homeless, shelters, home building or neighborhood revitalization projects.

Theta Phi Alpha's nickname is Theta Phi and the motto are "Nothing Great Is Ever Achieved Without Much Enduring" and "Ever Loyal, Ever Lasting." The symbols are the penguin and compass and the colors are silver, gold, and blue.

Delta Delta Delta was brought to Creighton University in 2010 and since has carried out its three main tenants. Tri Delta works to promote sisterhood amongst its members, to emphasize scholarship, and to support their philanthropy in every way.

Tri Delta has a philanthropy partnership with St. Jude Children's Research Hospital which is located in Memphis Tennessee. Delta Delta Delta works to raise money for the research that St. Jude supports, and they also focus on helping those patients who remain in the hospital with events like their "Promise A Prom Dress Drive."

Scholarship is a large part of Tri Delta's focus here at Creighton University, and programs like our Tri Delta Mentor-Mentee program both promote sisterhood and unity among our members and aim to help those sisters who want to excel academically.

Date parties, Semi-Formals, and Formal Dances also build that sisterhood component while allowing for a great time to relax, dance, and hang out with sisters and their dates!

Delta Delta Delta held a "tailgate" at the Pi Beta Phi Pigskin Classic, selling snack and drinks as a fundraiser for Saint Jude's.

"What I love about my sorority is the passion that we all have for Tri Delta and also for our philanthropy partner, St. Jude Children's Research Hospital. Whenever we are doing something for St. Jude, everyone wants to pitch in and help. In some way or another, we all have a personal reason for working our hardest for this cause. We not only all truly care about one another, but for a cause that we are excited to be a part of. I love that we are able to make a difference for something much bigger than any of us and affects people worldwide."

KAPPA KAPPA GAMMA

Kappa can provide a welcoming "home away from home" for any woman who wants to pursue new avenues, challenge conventional wisdom, and seek a leadership organization whose main goal is the success of each individual member. Members of Kappa can support each other and learn about themselves while participating in philanthropic endeavors, social events, academic pursuits, and leadership opportunities.

Kappa has a commitment to Service, Leadership, Scholarship, and Sisterhood. Our chapter has recently adopted a new community partner, the Children's Respite Care Center, and hosts a variety of philanthropic activities including a chili feed in the fall and Kickball for Kids in the spring.

Photos from recruitment week and Turtle Tug

Sisterhood, friendship, loyalty and pride are found daily in the lives and actions of the women of Delta Zeta. Founded in 1902 at Miami University, Delta Zeta is proud to be the largest international sorority, with over 170 chapters in the United States and Canada.

Delta Zeta's national philanthropy is speech and hearing impaired. Every fall we sponsor "Turtle Tug", a tug-o-war over green jello, where we raise money for a local speech and hearing impaired daycare. Besides donating time to our philanthropy, we also participate in events such as serving meals at the Francis House, gift baskets for families at Christmas and involvement in other Greek philanthropies.

Delta Zeta's social calendar is always filled with exciting events including theme date parties such as "DZ in Jammies", "Yabba Grabba DZ", and "Peace, Love and DZ". We have mixers with fraternities, date dashes, a semi-formal in the winter and our annual formal in the spring.

PI BETA PHI

Pi Phi participates in sisterhood retreats, date parties and forums, as well as community service and philanthropic events. We enhance our friendships through angel sisters, beta buds, and big/little sisters. We are committed to literacy and education for children and families, and hold two annual philanthropies—Pig Skin Classic, a flag football tournament in the fall, and Pi the Phi in the spring—in which all proceeds benefit literacy in our community. Pi Phi also proudly supports and actively participates in other Greek philanthropies throughout the year.

PHI KAPPA PSI FKC

Phi Kappa Psi chapters are groups of college men who have, by their own selection, banded themselves together as brothers for life. They are guided by laws, rituals, traditions, they aid each other, and they endeavor to educate their members in those social areas which the college classroom leaves untouched. In the process of building men, they benefit not only themselves, but their alma maters and all mankind.

The most important benefits any member receives from Phi Kappa Psi, then, are the unseeable, untouchable, contributions to his personal development. Philanthropy and community service instill in each brother the obligation he has to participate in charitable causes. Scholastic achievement is acknowledged through fraternity scholarships and grants, as well as weekly chapter recognition. The chapter, likewise, prides itself on its intramural program, not only in successes, but also in its goal to promote strong sportsmanship and high comradeship. Lastly, through the chapters social activities, the fraternity unites to celebrate in its fine accomplishments and to cultivate the fraternities unique brotherhood.

Through all these achievements Phi Kappa Psis unequivocal bonds of brotherhood are nurtured as the chapter strives toward excellence in all phases of university and fraternity life. Live ever! Die never! Phi Kappa Psi!

PHI DELTA THETA FDQ

Phi Delta Theta is an international men's fraternity of 173 chapters across the US and Canada. It is 154 years old, founded in 1848 at Miami University in Oxford, Ohio. It is based on the principles of friendship, sound learning and moral rectitude. Phis (or Phi Deltas) take these principles seriously.

We are known for our emphasis on academic achievement, our dedication to integrity, our focus on community service and our belief in brotherhood.

Neil Armstrong, Lou Gehrig, Burt Reynolds, Frank Lloyd Wright and Former Secretary of State James Baker are among the fraternity's famous alumni. They all benefited from the personal development Phi Delta Theta offered them. At Creighton, Phi Deltas have held or currently hold many leadership positions, including Student Body President, CSU Vice Presidents, Alpha Sigma Nu Jesuit honors Fraternity President, and ARDs of Residence Halls. Every member of Phi Delta Theta is involved in another organization on campus or in the community.

Phi Delta Theta has won many prestigious awards, including the Kansas City Trophy. This is an award presented annually to the best middle-sized chapter of Phi Delta Theta in the country. Our chapter, Nebraska-Camden, has won this award the last three years in a row, the first chapter to accomplish this feat in the history of Phi Delta Theta. We have also won the Outstanding Chapter award on Creighton's campus four years in a row (tied for first place with Sigma Phi Epsilon 2001).

SIGMA PHI EPSILON

SFE

Since its beginning, Sig Ep has become one of the leading fraternities on campus by building a foundation based on philanthropy, brotherhood, and social activities. The cardinal principles of Sigma Phi Epsilon are virtue, diligence, and brotherly love, and we strive to exemplify these principles in all that we do.

Our virtue can be seen in our devotion to philanthropy, both our own and that of other organizations. In the spring, our chapter orchestrates one of the largest annual road races in Omaha, the Run with a Heart. In 15 years, this philanthropic event has raised over $30,000 for the local Ronald McDonald House. Additionally, our chapter hosts an all-campus, 3-on-3 basketball tournament each fall, called Hoops for Hope, which annually benefits the North Omaha Boys and Girls Club.

We are diligent in the emphasis we place on academics. We understand that fundamentally we are students, and so we constantly encourage productive educational schedules in our members. This is proving quite evident as a number of Sig Eps hold leadership roles on campus, ranging from CUBAC Presidents and executives to past Student Body Presidents. Each year, Sig Eps are leaders in many clubs, University Committees, government organizations, and varsity sports.

A number of activities, including intramural athletics, brotherhood events, and our pledge program enhance our bond of brotherhood. Athletics provide a way for brothers to unite in competition (Sigma Phi Epsilon traditionally has intramural teams that place high in the all-university ranking). Additionally, the brothers often come together for brotherhood events like softball and BBQs, and the brotherhood that is experienced during the pledge program is unparalleled.

PI KAPPA ALPHA

PKA

The Pi Kappa Alpha Fraternity has a tradition of greatness both at Creighton University and throughout the nation. Pi Kappa Alpha has excelled at Creighton University since the founding of the chapter in 1977.

Since that time, Pi Kappa Alpha has held a pivotal role in helping the Greek system progress at Creighton University.

Pi Kappa Alpha has a tradition of excellence and continues to excel in all areas of Greek life whether it be social, scholarship or athletics. The chapter has earned nine consecutive Smythe Awards, an award which recognizes the top national chapter of Pi Kappa Alpha that has proven itself outstanding in all areas of Greek, social and academic life. In the upcoming semester, Pi Kappa Alpha has an active social calendar. On the agenda are mixers with sororities, numerous date parties and Spring Formal.

One of the most important aspects of a fraternity is brotherhood. Brotherhood consists of something more than a simple friendship. Becoming a brother of Pi Kappa Alpha means taking a step into a level of dedication like no other you've experienced before. The brothers help one another to achieve success. The Pi Kappa Alpha tradition of excellence has been formed and maintained through the brothers working together to accomplish the same goals.

Pi Kappa Alpha has the only nationally recognized Greek house on Creighton University's campus. The house is located at 3100 Chicago street. It is, by far, one of the most important assets of the fraternity. The pride that the brothers share in the house shows through the work that has been put into it to make it our home.

SIGMA ALPHA EPSILON

SAE

Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity stresses the importance of long lasting social bonds, leadership development, scholastic achievement, maturity, respect and honor. SAEs maintain the largest membership of all national fraternities. Among the many traditions SAEs uphold, brotherhood and history of the fraternity are two of the most important to members.

Throughout the new Millennium, Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity was involved in numerous activities ranging from Greek Weekend and homecoming, to participating in the annual Sigma Alpha Epsilon Province Tau Leadership school.

The brothers of Sigma Alpha Epsilon participate in intramural sports, philanthropy, mixers with sororities and date parties. Date parties consist of numerous traditional fun themes. Sigma Alpha Epsilon is a fraternity that enjoys going "all out" in both social and academics, making it a very diverse fraternity.

The brothers are also proud to congratulate Tom Bower, a graduate of Creighton and Founding Member of the Nebraska Iota Chapter of Sigma Alpha Epsilon, for becoming the President of our national organization. These past years have been both memorable and exciting for the brothers of Sigma Alpha Epsilon, with spirits high and goals even higher it is true what Tom Bower said about the meaning of SAE- "Strong As Ever"

INTERFRATERNITY COUNCIL

The Creighton University Interfraternity Council is the consortium of the fraternities, which are currently active at Creighton. The Interfraternity Council is the collective coordinating body and policy-making organization of the fraternity system. The purpose of IFC is to coordinate the efforts of the individual fraternities in matters of philanthropy, scholarship, recruitment, and university relations. Each fraternity represented on the Interfraternity Council is allowed one vote.

As part of the mission of IFC, the council declares:

That the objectives and the activities of the fraternity system should be in entire accord with the aim and purpose of Creighton University as an educational institution.

The college fraternity system with loyalty and allegiance to Creighton University, which nurtures it, has the duty of supporting the institution of which it is a part.

That the fraternity system should create an atmosphere, which will stimulate substantial intellectual and social progress of its members.

That the fraternity system has the goal of providing fellowship and leadership for the individual seeking an education.

That the fraternity system seeks to teach men how to live and work together, striving by precept and example for the personal development of the individual in the training of mind and body.

The fraternal system has the opportunity to act in terms of its best interest.

PANHellenic COUNCIL

The Panhellenic Council is the coordinating body of the sororities on campus. Each sorority is represented in the council and has one vote. purpose of the Panhellenic Council is to develop and maintain sorority life and inter-sorority relations at a high level of accomplishment and to:

Consider the goals and ideals of member groups as continually applicable to campus and personal life.

Promote superior scholarship as basic to intellectual achievement.

Cooperate with member sororities and the university administration in concern for and maintenance of high social and moral standards.

Act in accordance with National Panhellenic Conference rules and policies

Act in accordance with all rules established by Panhellenic Council as to not violate the sovereignty, rights, and privileges of member sororities.

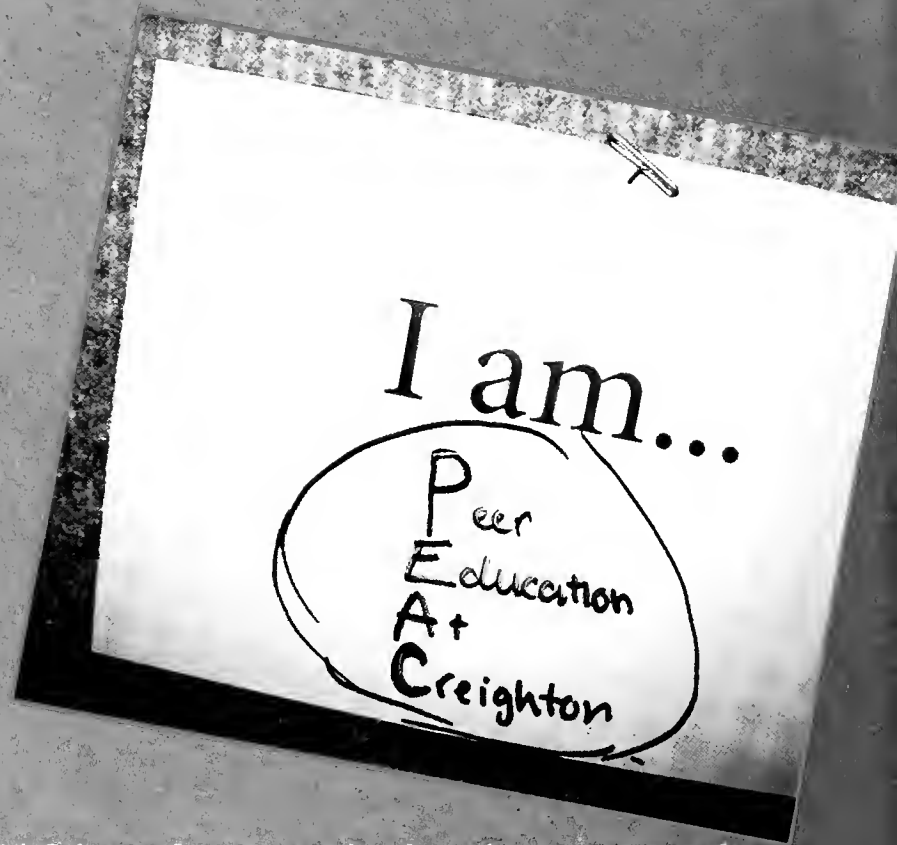

ORDER OF OMEGA

The Order of Omega is a National fraternity and sorority leadership honor society. Each collegiate chapter is permitted to offer membership to a maximum of 3% of the campus fraternity and sorority population each semester. The purpose of the Order of Omega is threefold:

- To bring together the most representative fraternity and members and recognize these students who have attained a high standard of leadership in Greek activities, to encourage them to continue along this line, and to inspire other to strive conspicuous attainment.
- To bring together members of the faculty, alumni, and student members of the institution's fraternities and sororities on a basis of mutual interest, understanding and helpfulness;
- To encourage Greek leadership by sponsoring activities to promote the Greek community at Creighton University including the Greek Leadership retreat, Being A New Greek (BANG), and Greek Awards.

PEER EDUCATION AT CREIGHTON (P.E.A.C.)

PEAC is student organization that supports the academic mission of the University by promoting healthy living and "peak performance" through healthy & responsible lifestyle choices. Peer Educators work together to spread awareness and provide preventative health education and peer support regarding health and wellness issues central to Creighton students' college experience.

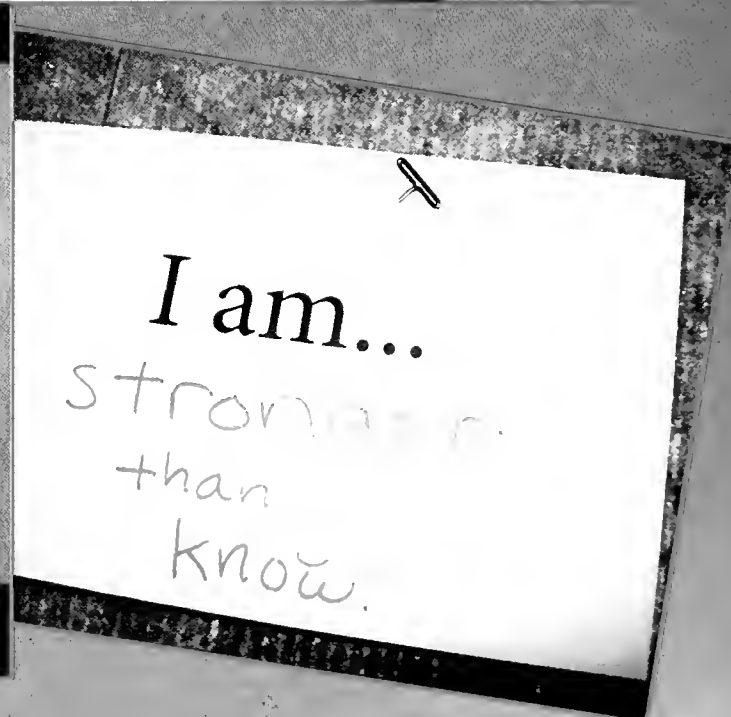

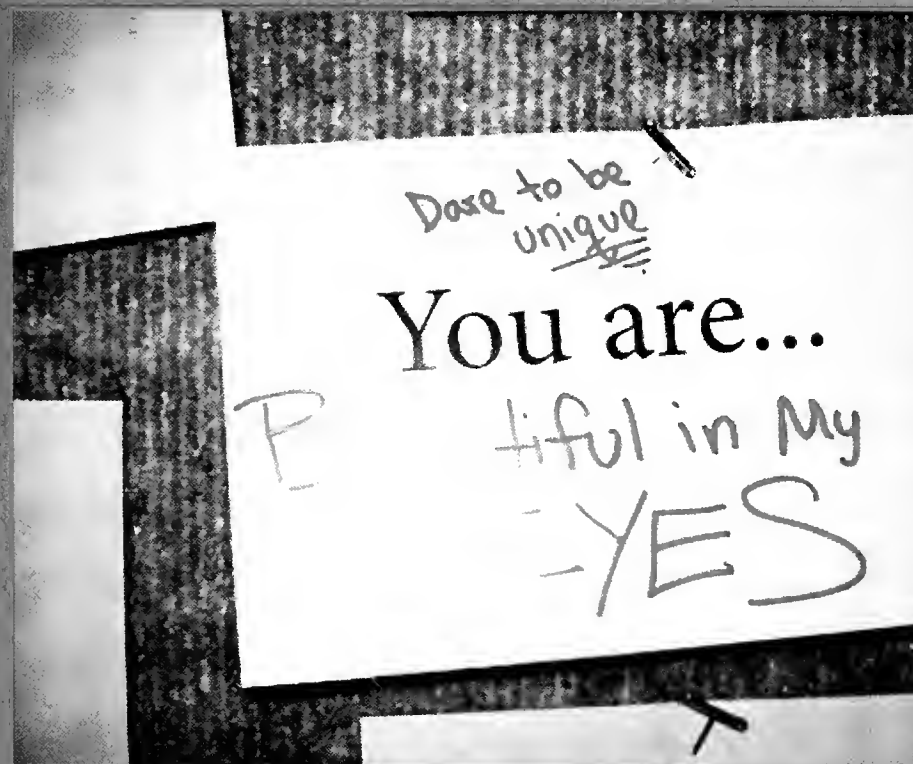

At the gallery opening, everyone was invited to write a special message of inspiration on a card. These were pinned to the walls of the gallery.

This past November, P.E.A.C. put on a campaign called "You are Beautiful" to remind everyone that "you are beautiful just the way you are."

COLLEGES

Colleges Against Cancer works to promote cancer awareness to college to college students, staff, and faculty. CAC puts on events, including Relay for Life. Relay For Life is an all night event which celebrates and remembers those who have battled cancer. This event spreads cancer awareness and raises money to fight back against this disease that has affected so many people's lives.

LANNON TO BE NEXT PRESIDENT

REPORTER
ON-CAMP

The date of 2012 will have a new twist to shake on graduation day.

The Rev. Timothy R. Lannon, S.J., will become the 24th president of Creighton University, succeeding the Rev. John P. Schlegel, S.J.

Lannon is set to become president on July 1, 2011.

William Fitzgerald and Bruce Rohde, chair and vice chair of the Creighton University Board of Directors, announced the decision Sept. 10.

"We are delighted that Father Lannon, a 1973 Creighton graduate, has decided to bring his considerable talents home to his alma mater. He is a leader with a passion for education who will advance the university, its mission and values," Fitzgerald and Rohde said in the official announcement of Lannon's appointment.

"Father Lannon's commitment to scholarship, research, teaching and service to others in the Jesuit tradition is not only the essence of his personal and professional character, but also central to Creighton's ongoing pursuit of academic preeminence."

Since Schlegel announced his retirement in July, the Presidential Search Committee — comprised of Creighton faculty, faculty, staff, alumni and students — sifted through potential replacements. They were looking for a sitting university president and member of the Society of Jesus with a strong background in academics, excellent leadership experience, exemplary professional characteristics and desirable personal attributes.

Lannon was an ideal choice.

Earning degrees from Creighton, Western Jesuit School of Theology (now Boston College School of Theology and Ministry) and Harvard University, Lannon met the academic conditions.

He entered the Society of Jesus in 1977 and was ordained a priest in 1986, which satisfied the Jesuit requirement.

He taught at Jesuit institutions and was president of Omaha Creighton Preparatory School during the early 1990s — satisfying the professional characteristics criteria — and he has been president of Saint Joseph's University in Philadelphia since 2003, meeting the sitting university president requirement.

With his extensive résumé and deep connections with Creighton, Lannon accepted the appointment.

"We did more than just find someone who met those criteria," Rohde said during the event. "We got a tremendous bonus along the way."

The Creighton University Board of Directors introduced Lannon last Friday in the U. J. Sakel Arena at the Wayne and Edleen Ryan Athletic Center.

"This day could not be more special for me," Lannon said during the event. "I thank all of you for coming today to share in this important announcement for Creighton University. To look out and see so many familiar faces is both affirming and humbling — and a bit overwhelming."

Lannon, a native of Mason City, Iowa, is also a 1993 recipient of Creighton's Alumni Merit Award.

"Creighton University changed my life," Lannon said. "I look forward with all of you to continue to change the lives of our undergraduate students."

Dr. Neil Norton, assistant dean for student affairs and director of admissions for the School of Dentistry, was on the Presidential Search Committee. He said Lannon is the perfect successor to follow in Schlegel's footsteps.

"I think we made the best choice possible," Norton said. "I know that the search committee was very excited that Father Lannon expressed interest in coming to Creighton. When you have an opportunity to go through his résumé — what he's done at Creighton Prep, what he's done at Marquette, St. Joe's as president for the last eight years — his résumé speaks for itself. We are very fortunate to get him to be our 24th president."

Schlegel: 'I could not be more pleased' with the choice'

Schlegel, who taught at Creighton while Lannon was an undergraduate, was optimistic that Lannon would be a good fit for the job.

"I think he'll fit in very nicely," Schlegel said. "[Lannon is] very obviously very deeply committed to coming to Creighton. He's got a long history with Creighton, and he's very connected — so that'll bode well with bonding with alumni and everyone."

"I could not be more pleased with the choice of Father Lannon as successor," Schlegel said. "There truly is a bright future at 24th and California Streets."

CUMC SHOOTING BRINGS SAFETY TO MIND

CREIGHTONIAN STAFF

Two Omaha police officers and a suspect were involved in a shooting at the Creighton University Medical Center Sept. 29.

The Omaha Police Department responded to a 911 call at 9:19 a.m. and found a man matching the suspect's description on the lobby level of CUMC, near the cafeteria.

The police officers arrived on the scene and asked the suspect, 39-year-old Jeffrey Layten of Tekamah, Neb., to show his hands. Layten then pulled out a gun and aimed at the officers, according to an OPD press release. Officer Lee Kerniskey then tased the suspect. Layten then opened fire on the officers, and the officers shot him in the chest.

Kerniskey suffered a graze wound to his thigh, and Officer Eric Picht suffered a gunshot wound to his foot. Both were released from CUMC the same day of the shooting.

Layten, who was not affiliated with Creighton or CUMC, died Sept. 29 from gunshots fired by the police, according to the press release.

CUMC went into partial lockdown during the incident so police and CUMC officers could make sure everyone in the building had a legitimate reason to be there. The emergency room continued to provide services to patients. No CUMC patients, students, employees or faculty were hurt.

Police said Layten was also the suspect in a manhunt in the early hours of Sept. 29 and a domestic dispute the evening before the shooting.

"We are extremely grateful to the Omaha Police Department for their exceptional job of stabilizing the situation and disarming the suspect," said John Cernech, dean of students and vice president for Student Services, in an official update sent to the Creighton community Wednesday. "We have the families of those involved in our thoughts and prayers."

Still, the shooting left some Creighton students feeling a little anxious.

"I feel a little unsafe in the Omaha area," said Clare Houlihan, Arts & Sciences sophomore. "It's a little concerning that we're in an area where we have to worry about gunfire."

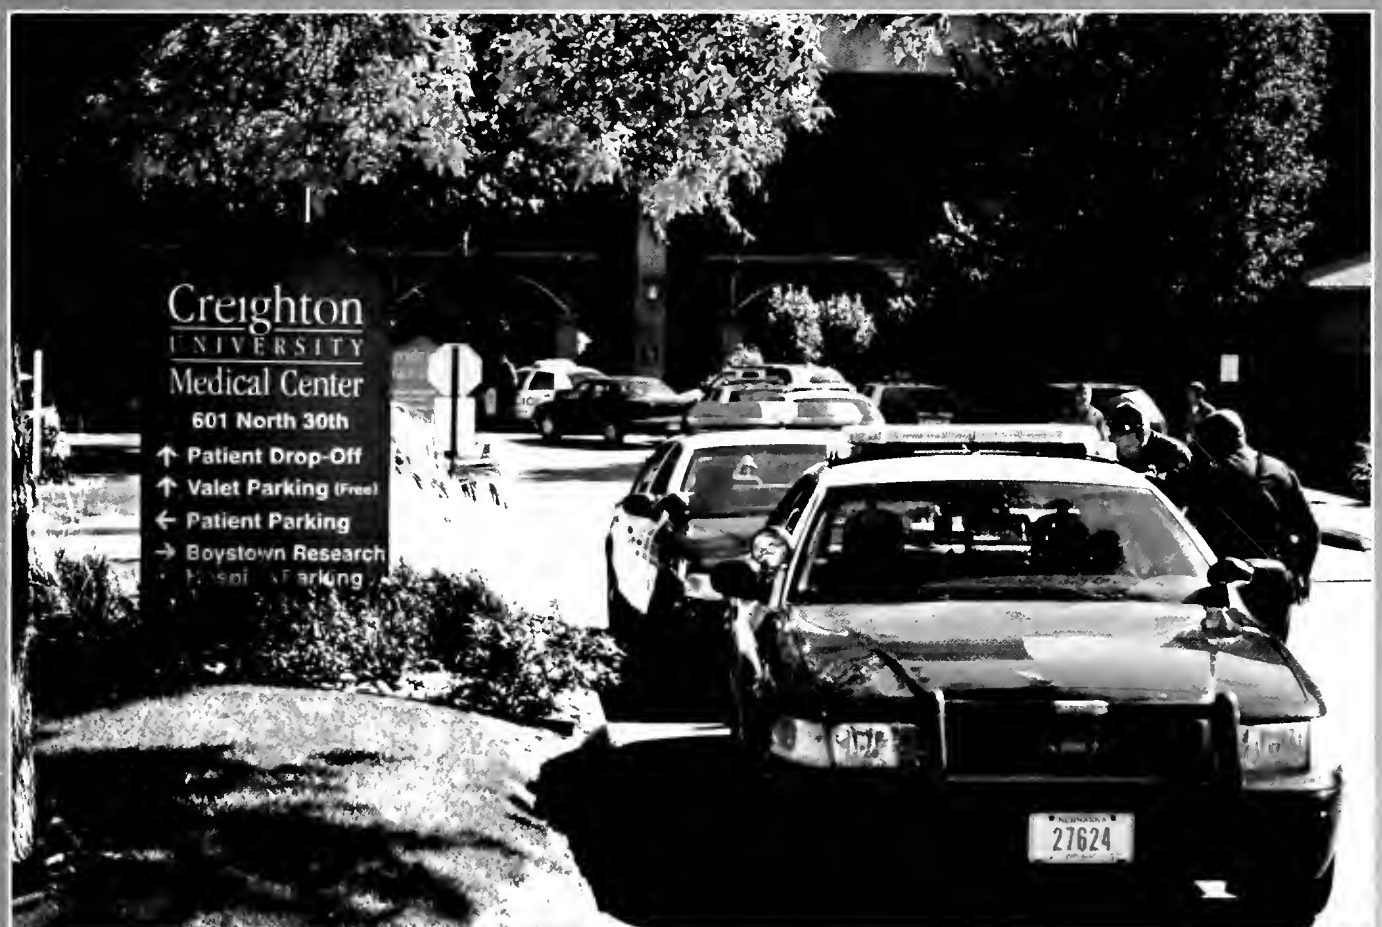

Arts & Sciences junior Kate Branstetter also felt uneasy.

"It's a little scary because I was in a classroom and we could see CUMC," Branstetter said. "Sometimes CU students forget we're in an urban environment. We aren't in the safest area of Omaha."

Cernech said the Sept. 29 shooting coupled with a similar incident at the University of Texas at Austin the day before, "reminds us all of the fragility of life and of the need to be safe — even on college campuses."

Cernech suggested that students should participate in CUAAlert, Creighton's emergency notification system. CUAAlert will send official alerts through text messages, phone messages and e-mail.

"I am asking everyone to register for this service," Cernech said.

HISTORY DEPARTMENT LOST 'HEART AND SOUL' THIS SUMMER

FRANCIS MCQUILLIAN
ASSISTANT NEWS EDITOR

On Aug. 14, history professor Dr. Ashton Welch died in his sleep the age 68. Welch served as associate professor of history and coordinator of the program in Black Studies. He was beloved by those in the History Department and all of Creighton. He was known as a man who was devoted to his teaching and had a passion for African Studies.

Dr. Elizabeth Elliot-Meisel, current chair

1985-1993.

Throughout the 35 years that he spent working and teaching at Creighton, he built numerous relationships with faculty members and students through his kindness and willingness to help others learn.

Arts & Sciences senior Minden Yuskevich said she felt privileged to have Welch as her faculty adviser.

"He was more of my go-to person when it came to classes, and whenever I was struggling or just didn't know what to do, I came to him. He was an extremely helpful adviser and was one of the nicest people I've ever met," Yuskevich said.

She said that Welch was very straightforward when it came to choosing classes for his history majors.

"He knows I hate math and kept telling me that I should get it over with instead of waiting until senior year," Yuskevich said.

Elliot-Meisel described Welch as a man with "unfailing kindness, a deep respect for others and a gentle nature."

Welch was also known for his intelligence. As coordinator of the Program in Black Studies, Welch was in charge of the courses in African and African American history. He published numerous works, including, "Black or African-American, What's in a Name? — A Critique," "The Civil Rights Act of 1968," "Emancipation in the United States" and "Ethnic Definitions as Reflections of Public Policy."

"Dr. Welch was an active scholar, pursuing a variety of scholarly interests, publishing regularly, serving on many committees — in and out of the academy — and teaching a wide variety of courses," Elliot-Meisel said.

Yuskevich had heard that Welch could be a tough teacher at times, but his students took a lot away from his class.

"He knew what he was talking about; he had a passion for what he was teaching," she said.

His dedication to teaching earned Welch numerous awards throughout his years at Creighton including the Robert F. Kennedy Memorial Student Award for excellence in teaching, the distinguished faculty award and the College of Arts and Sciences Dean's Award for excellence in teaching. He was a member of the Jesuit Honor Society, Alpha Sigma Nu, a society that is committed to "values of scholarship, loyalty and service, the ideals of Jesuit education."

"It's going to be a huge hole in the department. He's going to be missed by all kinds of people, not just history majors," Yuskevich said.

Outside of teaching and dedicating so much of his time to Creighton, Welch enjoyed gardening, walking in Elmwood Park, travelling and spending time with his wife of over 30 years, Helen Wanken.

Many Creighton faculty members and students who knew Welch considered him an important member of the Creighton family and will truly miss his presence.

of the History Department, considered Welch to be a great asset to the department.

"Dr. Welch was truly the heart and soul of the department," Elliot-Meisel said. "He was a mentor to many of us, in a variety of ways and over many years. He touched all of us and he was a role model: he treated everyone — students, faculty, staff, administrators, strangers and friends — with respect and kindness."

Welch had been a member of the Creighton History Department since 1975. He received his Ph.D. in 1979 and served as chair of the department from

EXCHANGING A WORD OF WISDOM: CREIGHTON RECEIVES A RECORD

INGRID DANE
SCENE REPORTER

During spring semester, Creighton received its largest group of international students ever through the International Students Exchange Program.

Creighton welcomed seven international students for its current fall semester. They come from: Botswana, Denmark, France, Italy and South Korea.

ISEP is a network of more than 300 colleges and universities in 45 countries cooperating to provide affordable access to international education for a diverse student population. ISEP students gain intercultural competence through integration into their host institution and host culture while exploring the international dimensions of their academic fields.

Creighton became a member of the program in the spring semester of 2002 and received its first international student, who was from Malta, during the fall semester of the same year.

ISEP-Exchange works on a balance system where universities exchange students and every two years the balance must be equal. For example, if Creighton received 10 international students in total during two years that means 10 students from Creighton spent at least one semester abroad at an ISEP institution also during the two years.

According to ISEP, Creighton qualified as a "very good chance of placement" university, which means international students have a high probability of matriculation. Since the program began at Creighton, students have come from: Botswana, Denmark, Germany, Finland, France, Italy, Malta, Poland, South Korea and Thailand.

When Creighton faculty ask the international students what they like at Creighton, the most common answer is that the people are so nice. Heather Torres, Creighton study abroad coordinator, said.

"I received quick answers every time that I had any questions concerning my stay and I have a really nice international buddy," said Christina Kirk Kjersgaard, a Business junior from Denmark.

Many efforts are made to help the students integrate into the Creighton community. Some activities include having an "international buddy," the Multinational Ambassador Program and participating in events like the International Students Banquet which took place last Friday.

International students usually get a J-1 visa which requires them to return to their home countries after the semester's completion — although sometimes they can extend this period by doing an internship.

"ISEP is a really good opportunity for both sides, the incoming and outgoing students because it allows students to study abroad for the same cost that would normally pay to go to university in their own countries," said Torres.

"The other benefit of ISEP is that when we have an American student who studies abroad we receive an exchange student here which helps to internationalize campus and brings new perspectives to our Creighton community."

For Creighton students that would like to study abroad and find out more about ISEP you can contact the Office of International Programs, which is located in Harper Center.

In addition to ISEP-Exchange, students can also participate in ISEP-Direct, which is a program that provides the opportunity to enroll directly in a host institution abroad instead of exchanging places with another student. In this case, students simply pay the fees to the host institutions.

With ISEP, international students see not just a way to learn English but also a chance to experiment with a new way of life.

"The fact of studying abroad is not just an opportunity to learn or improve another language, it represents also a chance to discover a new culture, new mentalities, new way of learning, and also meet new people," said Ines Sathout, an Arts & Science junior from France. "I really encourage the people that would like to study in another country to take the leap."

COLOPHON

The 2011 Bluejay, volume 81, was printed by Balfour (formerly Taylor Publishing Company) in Dallas, Texas. The book was created using Adobe InDesign CS3 and Photoshop CS4. This year's theme was "Birds of a Feather," focusing on the unique community that Creighton creates.

The yearbook co-editors are Stephanie Ivec and Megan Spath, and the staff consists of Heidi Hoffman and Dino Beldia.

We would like to thank the members of student organizations and Creighton Athletics for their photo contributions. Also, we would like to thank the Creightonian for their write-ups and articles. We'd like to thank Erin Takeuchi for her bluejay illustration. As always, a big thank you to our always-patient Taylor reps. And we would like to thank our yearbook advisor Kris Boyle for his patience with our inability to meet deadlines. To all of the organizations who submitted information, we really appreciate your help. If your organization was not in this year's book and you'd like to be included next year, contact the yearbook.
